

XM radio is doing a good service providing instant traffic and weather on its service. I drive a truck and find this service is very helpful in my travels around this country. If AM & FM, feel threatened by this pay service , then maybe they should look at their own outdated format and change with the times.